Questions for a Deeper Study:

1. What is one thing that stood out to you from this week's message?
2. Have you ever met someone you wish you'd never met?
3. Pastor Michael defined the phrase in Ephesians 5:21, "Submit to one another..." as voluntarily placing yourself under the Christ-like care of another. Do you agree or disagree with that? Why or why not?
4. "Our friends determine the direction and the quality of our lives." Do you agree or disagree with this statement?
5. Reflecting on your friendships, do you walk with the right people? Are the people in your life helping you navigate to the right places God would want for you? Are there some people in your life that you might need to distance yourself from because they rumble the wrong things, or do not rumble the right things? What is one thing you can do today to begin making that change?

6. Do you tend to get defensive when someone speaks truth into your life or do you listen and respond with gratitude? How can you exercise the right spirit of humility and gratitude when someone rumbles something in your life?

7. What are some of the right questions you need your friends to be asking you?

8. Read Galatians 6:1-2. Who is someone that God might be asking you to gently and humbly help get back on the right path? What is one thing you can do this week to begin that conversation?

9. How can we pray for you?
