

Wanamaker Woods Notes

Moses: Following God into the Unknown (Week 1)

Exodus 1-2 (CEB)

October 10, 2021

Main Point: I can face the unknown because God is always redeeming.

- Facing the _____ is where we find ourselves most of the time.
- God is always _____.
- God can redeem your _____.
- God can redeem your _____.
- I can face the _____ because God is always _____.

Wanamaker Woods Notes

Moses: Following God into the Unknown (Week 1)

Exodus 1-2 (CEB)

October 10, 2021

Main Point: I can face the unknown because God is always redeeming.

- Facing the _____ is where we find ourselves most of the time.
- God is always _____.
- God can redeem your _____.
- God can redeem your _____.
- I can face the _____ because God is always _____.

Wanamaker Woods Notes

Moses: Following God into the Unknown (Week 1)

Exodus 1-2 (CEB)

October 10, 2021

Main Point: I can face the unknown because God is always redeeming.

- Facing the UNKNOWN is where we find ourselves most of the time.
- God is always REDEEMING.
- God can redeem your SITUATION.
- God can redeem your BAD CHOICES.
- I can face the UNKNOWN because God is always REDEEMING.

Wanamaker Woods Notes

Moses: Following God into the Unknown (Week 1)

Exodus 1-2 (CEB)

October 10, 2021

Main Point: I can face the unknown because God is always redeeming.

- Facing the UNKNOWN is where we find ourselves most of the time.
- God is always REDEEMING.
- God can redeem your SITUATION.
- God can redeem your BAD CHOICES.
- I can face the UNKNOWN because God is always REDEEMING.

Wanamaker Woods Notes

Moses: Following God into the Unknown (Week 1)

Exodus 1-2 (CEB)

October 10, 2021

Main Point: I can face the unknown because God is always redeeming.

Life Group Questions:

1. What is one thing that stood out to you from this week's message?
2. What is one big unknown you have faced or are currently facing?
3. Did you know that Moses was a murderer and a fugitive from the law? If not, how do you react?
4. Does Moses's past nullify his present ability to serve God? Consider a contemporary context: You are on the search committee at your church, and a candidate applies who spent time in prison for murder. In prison the person met Jesus, repented, and was saved, and now feels called to pastoral ministry. What do you do? How would you assess whether this person has truly been reformed?

Wanamaker Woods Notes

5. Often we assume our bad choices seem to disqualify us from being used by God. But Moses shows us something different. What was different? How was Moses' story flipped? Why was Moses' story flipped?
6. What about this passage surprised you?
7. This week we learned that God wants to work through and redeem your situation. How have you seen God redeem situations similar to yours before?
8. Are you open to the possibility of God's redemption in your situation?
9. How can we pray for you?